PROGRAM OBJECTIVE

The objective of this conference is to convey an understanding of current legal issues affecting breeding, buying, selling, ownership interests, racing, and other business operations of the horse industry. It is designed for attorneys who counsel, represent, or litigate on behalf of buyers, sellers, breeders, brokers, owners of interests in horses, and other entities involved with the industry. This Conference is open to the public. Individuals with experience in the horse industry will find the sessions useful and informative. LEVEL OF INSTRUCTION: Intermediate to advanced. SUGGESTED PREREQUISITE: Substantial interest, experience, or practice in subject area.

REGISTRATION, CANCELLATION & REFUND INFORMATION

The registration fee includes attendance for all sessions, course materials in format selected, Wednesday & Thursday luncheons, cocktail reception, continental breakfasts, and refreshments. Early registration is recommended. Door registrations on the day of the program are accepted on a space available basis. Cancellation charges: Full refund up to and through April 6; $100.00 cancellation charge from April 7 to April 20; and no refund after April 20. Registrations are transferable and substitution of registrants may be made any time before the seminar begins. If conference materials are desired, they will be sent after the program and the cost of the conference materials will be deducted from any refund.

CONFERENCE LOCATION & ACCOMMODATIONS

The conference itself will be held at the historic Keeneland Racecourse Sales Pavilion, located at 4201 Versailles Road in Lexington, Kentucky. CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION CREDIT

This Conference is structured to provide CLE credits for lawyers licensed in states which require specific hours of instruction each year. The Conference is now, or will be qualified for, CLE credits in all mandatory states. The Kentucky CLE Commission should approve the conference for 12 credit hours including 2 hours of ethics, as should other "60 minute" states. States measuring credits in 50 minute increments should approve the conference for 14 credit hours including 2 hours of ethics. Luncheon presentations are not for CLE credit and will not be livestreamed.

REMOTE ATTENDANCE OPTION & COVID-19 SAFETY PLAN

This conference will offer the option of attending virtually via live-streamed video. Instructions will be provided if you select this option on the registration form. You will need stable, high-speed internet access and a computer, laptop, tablet, or other mobile device. In the event the conference cannot be held on location due to Covid-19 restrictions, we will contact all registrants with new options.

PARTICIPATE IN THIS YEAR'S CONFERENCE & BENEFIT FROM:

- Critical updates on the law regarding equine breeding, buying, selling, liability and management
- Authoritative analysis of over a dozen crucial topics by experienced practitioners
- Well-researched written materials not available elsewhere
- An opportunity to compare experiences with practitioners throughout the country

Each year, registrants from over 30 states and several foreign countries take advantage of this unique educational opportunity.
